5.Employee Benefits

5.1 Health Insurance Continuation

The Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA) is a federal law that requires most employers sponsoring group health plans to offer a temporary continuation of group health coverage when coverage would otherwise be lost due to certain specific events.

Through COBRA, employees and their qualified beneficiaries have the right to continue group health insurance coverage after a "qualifying event." The following are qualifying events:

- Resignation or termination of the employee
- Death of the covered employee
- A reduction in the employee's hours
- For spouses and eligible dependents, the employee's entitlement to Medicare
- Divorce or legal separation of the covered employee and his or her spouse
- A dependent child no longer meeting eligibility requirements under the group health plan

Under COBRA, the employee or beneficiary pays the full cost of health insurance coverage at MANHATTAN TEMPORARY STAFFING LLC's group rates plus an administration fee.

Notification Requirements:

The employee, or family member, has the responsibility to inform the rick mann of a divorce, legal separation, or a child losing dependent status within 60 days of the event. MANHATTAN TEMPORARY STAFFING LLC has the responsibility to notify the Plan Administrator of the employee's death, termination of employment, or reduction in hours.

Once the notification has been made to the Plan Administrator, the Plan Administrator will inform the employee that he or she has the right to choose continuation of coverage. If employees choose to continue coverage, MANHATTAN TEMPORARY STAFFING LLC is required to provide coverage that is identical to the coverage provided under the plan to similarly situated employees or family members.

Period of Coverage:

Continuation of coverage is extended from the date of the qualifying event for a period of 18 to 36 months. The length of time for which continuation coverage is made available (i.e., the "maximum period" of continuation coverage) depends on the type of qualifying event that gave rise to the employee's COBRA rights.

An employee's continuation of coverage may be cut short for any of the following reasons:

- MANHATTAN TEMPORARY STAFFING LLC no longer provides group health coverage to any of its employees
- The premium for the employee's continuation coverage is not paid in full on a timely basis
- The employee becomes covered under another group health plan that does not contain any exclusion or limitation with respect to any pre-existing condition
- The employee becomes entitled to Medicare

This policy provides a summary of health insurance continuation benefits. Actual coverage is determined by the express terms of the plan documents. We encourage both you and your family to review the plan's Summary Plan Description (SPD) materials carefully.

If there are any conflicts between the handbook or summaries provided and the plan documents, the plan documents will control. The Company reserves the right to amend, interpret, modify or terminate any of its employee benefits programs without prior notice to the extent allowed by law.

For further details on health insurance continuation available through MANHATTAN TEMPORARY STAFFING LLC, as well as copies of the plan documents, contact the rick mann.

5.2 Military Leave

MANHATTAN TEMPORARY STAFFING LLC proudly grants employees time off of work for service in the uniformed services in accordance with the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA).

All employees requesting time off for military service must provide advance notice of military service to their immediate supervisor, unless military necessity prevents such notice or it is otherwise impossible or unreasonable. Continuation of health insurance benefits is available during military leave subject to the terms and conditions of the group health plan and applicable law.

Employees are eligible for re-employment for up to five (5) years from the date their military leave began. The period an individual has to make application for reemployment or report back to work after military service is based on time spent on military duty. For service of less than 31 days, the service member must return at the beginning of the next regularly scheduled work period on the first full day after release from service, taking into account safe travel home plus an eight-hour rest period. For service of more than 30 days but less than 181 days, the service member must submit an application for reemployment within 14 days of release from service. For service of more than 180 days, an application for reemployment must be submitted within 90 days of release from service.

Employees who qualify for re-employment will return to active employment at a pay level and status equal to that which they would have attained had they not entered military service. They will be treated as though they were continuously employed for purposes of determining benefits based on length of service.

Questions regarding this policy should be directed to the rick mann.

5.3 Family Military Leave (New York Employees)

Employees may be eligible to take up to 10 days of leave when their spouse, as a member of the armed forces, National Guard or reserves, is on leave from deployment during a period of military conflict.

To be eligible, an employee must work for MANHATTAN TEMPORARY STAFFING LLC an average of at least 20 hours per week.

Employees should provide reasonable advance notice of their need for such leave to the extent possible. When possible, employees should consult with their supervisor to schedule the leave so that it does not unduly disrupt MANHATTAN TEMPORARY STAFFING LLC's operations. Employees must be prepared to provide MANHATTAN TEMPORARY STAFFING LLC with certification from the proper military authority to verify the employee's eligibility for family military leave.

Family military leave is unpaid; however, employees may opt to use accrued paid time off for this purpose.

5.4 Jury Duty

MANHATTAN TEMPORARY STAFFING LLC encourages employees to fulfill their civic responsibilities when called upon to serve as a juror. Employees must provide their immediate supervisor with a copy of their jury summons as soon as possible so that the supervisor may make arrangements to accommodate their absence.

Employees on jury duty must report to work on workdays, or parts of workdays, when they are not required to serve. Either MANHATTAN TEMPORARY STAFFING LLC or the employee may request an excuse from jury duty if it is determined that the employee's absence would create serious operational difficulties.

Jury duty will be paid if required by applicable state law. If paid, jury duty pay will be calculated on the employee's base pay rate times the number of hours the employee would otherwise have worked on the day of absence.

5.5 Jury Duty Leave (New York Employees)

MANHATTAN TEMPORARY STAFFING LLC encourages employees to fulfill their civic responsibilities when called upon to serve as a juror. Employees must provide their immediate supervisor with a copy of their jury summons as soon as possible but prior to the start of jury duty service so that the supervisor may make arrangements to accommodate their absence. Either MANHATTAN TEMPORARY STAFFING LLC or the employee may request an excuse from jury duty if it is determined that the employee's absence would create serious operational difficulties.

If you report for jury duty and/or serve on a jury, you will be paid the first $40 of your regular compensation for the first 3 days; however, your pay will be reduced by any compensation you receive from the courts for serving. Additional time off will be unpaid; however, employees may opt to use accrued paid time off for this purpose.

5.6 Workers' Compensation

Employees who are injured on the job at MANHATTAN TEMPORARY STAFFING LLC are eligible for Workers' Compensation benefits. Such benefits are provided at no cost to employees and cover any injury or illness sustained in the course of employment that requires medical treatment.

Employees who sustain work-related injuries or illnesses must notify their supervisor immediately so that MANHATTAN TEMPORARY STAFFING LLC can notify the workers' compensation insurance carrier as soon as possible.
